activity is highly pronounced. Specifically, the Anchorage Division reports that Alaska has been the target of clashes between environmentalists and developers, the oil industry, the logging industry, whaling industry, and the management of Alaskan fish and game matters. In particular, the Anchorage Division reports of the following law enforcement progress and challenges in dealing with the threat emanating from Greenpeace.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On 04/13/2000, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were arrested by the North Slope Borough Police Department (NSBPD) at Seal Island, Alaska, after they walked backwards, with hands raised, onto British Petroleum Amoco's property. The two apparently walked in reverse so their peaceful arrest could be videotaped and posted to the Greenpeace Internet web site. The
